

landscape planting design

description

christopher consultants' approach to landscape planting is to use the principals of landscape design in defining the space and creating outdoor rooms. Our emphasis in each of our projects is to focus on the connection of the user and the environment and integration between the two elements. Native species dominate the plan tselection criteria and are applied to meet the regulatory criteria and the clients' needs and budget.

project types

- Open space and park design
- Streetscape plantings
- Environmental restoration
- Landscape design for:
 - Residential
 - Office
 - Mixed-use developments
 - Commercial
 - Schools
 - Religious institutions